Statement on the Importance of Ethics in Fundraising

Please read the below statement regarding the importance of ethics to the AFP Greater Madison Chapter. You will be asked to sign an acknowledgement regarding your understanding of this statement below. Your application is not complete without a signature.

AFP members both individual and business aspire to:

- practice their profession with integrity, honesty, truthfulness and adherence to the absolute obligation to safeguard the public trust;
- act according to the highest goals and visions of their organizations, professions, clients and consciences;
- put philanthropic mission above personal gain;
- inspire others through their own sense of dedication and high purpose;
- improve their professional knowledge and skills, so that their performance will better serve others;
- demonstrate concern for the interests and wellbeing of individuals affected by their actions;
- value the privacy, freedom of choice and interests of all those affected by their actions;
- foster cultural diversity and pluralistic values and treat all people with dignity and respect;
- affirm, through personal giving, a commitment to philanthropy and its role in society;
- adhere to the spirit as well as the letter of all applicable laws and regulations;
- advocate within their organizations adherence to all applicable laws and regulations;
- avoid even the appearance of any criminal offense or professional misconduct;
- bring credit to the fundraising profession by their public demeanor;
- encourage colleagues to embrace and practice these ethical principles and standards; and
- be aware of the codes of ethics promulgated by other professional organizations that serve philanthropy.

Furthermore, while striving to act according to the above values, AFP members, both individual and business, agree to abide (and to ensure, to the best of their ability, that all members of their staff abide) by the AFP standards. Violation of the standards may subject the member to disciplinary sanctions, including expulsion, as provided in the AFP Ethics Enforcement Procedures.

I, _____ have read and understand the above statement regarding the importance of ethical fundraising to the Association of Fundraising Professionals. To the best of my knowledge, I have determined that the person/organization/corporation that I am nominating has adhered to these high standards of ethical fundraising.
